Item No. 347.

The Act of June 27, 1942, c. 453, Sections 1 and 2, 56 Stat. 461, 50 USC App. Sections 801-802, provides that the personal and household effects of any person in the service of the United States, or of any person evacuated to the United States under Government orders, may be brought into the United States or any of its possessions pursuant to Government orders or instructions, without payment of any duty or tax, subject, however, to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The Act provides (50 USC 802) that it "shall have no force or effect on or after the day following the proclamation of peace by the President." The retention of provisions of this nature as permanent law is desirable in order to facilitate the movement of CIA personnel and any evacuation of persons to the United States arranged by CIA.
